Wijs, Bauke Muller, Giacomo Percario and Giovanni Donati. They scored a total of 134.03 VPs.

Goodman was in fourth place with three matches to go. They won by 9 IMPs to move into third place, then blitzed their penultimate match to claim the lead. They won their last match by 29 IMPs to win the event comfortably.

In second place was the Rombaut team: Jerome Rombaut, Roy Welland, Sabine Auken, Leo Rombaut, Selena Pepic, and Jovana Zoranovic. They were in fifth place with one match left to play; they had a 21 IMP victory over the Fleisher squad to move up with 116.58 victory points.

In third was Leslie Amoils, Brad Moss, Oren Toledano, Ami Zamir, Joe Grue and Tom Hanlon.

Women's Swiss Teams

Runners-up in the Women's Open Swiss Teams (from left): Justyna Zmuda, Katarzyna Dufurat, team captain Claire Alpert and Danuta Kazmucha

Molson of Hollywood FL and Irene Baroni of Paris, France. They finished with a total of 101.96 victory points, only 3.05 VPs ahead of the second-place team, Claire Alpert of Miami FL, Danuta Kazmucha, Justyna Zmuda and Katarzyna Dufurat, all of Poland.

After beating Zhang in the first match of the first final session by 18 IMPs, Alpert was leading and maintained the lead for the first half. But Zhang came back after the break and had a big win, reclaiming the lead. Zhang added two more small wins; Alpert needed to win their last match by 15 IMPs to win the event, they won by 7 IMPs.

It's the first NABC+ win for Zhang and Baroni.

"I didn't expect it, but I hoped,"

Second in the Golder North American Pairs Flight B: Weican Xiao and Haihong Li, representing District 25

boards. The District 6 pair had been leading after Saturday's qualifying round handily when they put up a 68.46% first final session. Their second final session was only 50.08%, but they didn't need much by then.

They won an NAOBC 0-1500 Knockout in 2021, but it is their first NABC win. Both were extremely tired afterward.

"Now that it's over, I feel a sense of elation," Munro said.

They have been playing together since summer 2022. Since arriving in Louisville a week ago, they placed seventh in both the 0-2500 Swiss Teams and 0-2500 Pairs.

Flight B is limited to players with under 2500 masterpoints and pairs must qualify out of their districts to compete in the event.

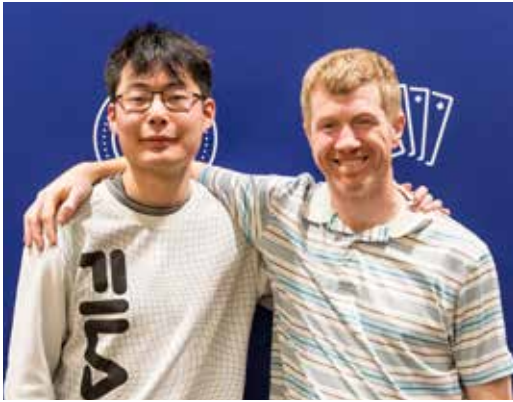

said Zhang. "I just focus, do my job. I don't look at the results. I just try to learn."

"I'm so happy with my partner," said Shi. "I knew she had a lot of potential."

In third were Gerianne Mason, Allison L. Cappelletti, Tina Tessaro and Irina Kislitsyna.

NAP-C

Runners-up in the President's Cup North American Pairs Flight C: Ryan Fu and Kyle Blocher

by one-third of a matchpoint – 1/75th of a board. They had been second after Saturday's qualifying round by a hair, neck and neck with another pair from District 24. In the final sessions they scored 60.13% and 57.54%, putting them ahead by the thinnest of margins.

In second were Ryan Fu of Urbana IL and Kyle Blocher of Champaign IL, representing District 8. They had been seventh after qualifying and scored 65.68% and 57.38%.

It's the first NABC win for Xu and Li.

"I'm so excited," said Li, who was playing at his first NABC. Xu played in the Youth NABC in 2019, the last year he was eligible.

Though last summer's Grand National Teams Flight C featured an all-District 24 final, Xu and Li were not on either team. Both moved to New York a year ago and were not playing in District 24 at the time GNT qualifying was held. D24 pairs also finished fifth and 11th in NAP-C.

"They're all really good players," Xu said. "That's how I know being in C doesn't necessarily mean you aren't good players."

Li didn't think they were doing very well in the final session, but Xu said he felt good enough to bid some risky games.

2025 Summer transnationals in Poland*By Eric Laurant, EBL president*

In the odd-numbered years, the European Bridge League traditionally organizes their flagship tournament: the summer transnationals.

Last year, they were played in Strasbourg, France. In 2025, the host location will be the beautiful city of Poznan, Poland. From June 20 to July 5, you can enjoy playing in the Senior and Mixed (first week) and/or Open and Women (second week) categories. For teams, there will be two or three days of qualifications, and after that, full-day knockout matches. There will be European titles and masterpoints for pairs and board-a-match games during the week.

For further details, see the EBL website: eurobridge.org.

Steve Weinstein and Bobby Levin won the Mott-Smith trophy, awarded to the players who earn the most masterpoints at the Spring NABC. The pair placed 7th in the Kay Platinum Pairs (75 points) and then won the Vanderbilt (250) with the Nickell team for a total of 325 points. They finished 0.48 points ahead of Joel Wooldridge, who won the Platinum Pairs, placed seventh in the Silodor Open Pairs and 12th in the Jacoby Open Swiss Teams.
